Casa Tomara presents the miniuno InfinityFix - an i-Size rotating car seat, suitable for all stages of a child's development, a perfect combination of safety and comfort. InfinityFix is the only car seat ever needed as it is suitable from 40cm (birth) right up until the child no longer needs a car seat. It features Isofix connections with a front support leg, so it has a TRUE 360-degree rotation, offering incredibly easy access. InfinityFix is designed to be extended rearward facing from 40-105cm and features a newborn wedge cushion, deep padded seat liner and head hugger. The stylish premium breathable fabrics make InfinityFix super comfortable for a growing baby, and the headrest and harnesses adjust together, so there's no need for re-threading the belts as a child gets bigger.
