

Harrogate is here!

For the majority of the UK's nursery industry, the highlight of the year is finally here as the doors to Harrogate International Nursery Fair open at 9.30am tomorrow (Sunday 16th). The show is open until 5.30pm on Sunday and Monday, and closes at 4.00pm on the last day (Tuesday).

We truly have a bumper event to enjoy this year, with so many new and returning brands – some which haven't exhibited for many years. With 140 exhibitors, around 200 brands and participants from over 15 countries – including as far as New Zealand.

There are many highlights again, including the Baby Products Association's Baby and Nursery Trade Awards (BANTAs), the winners of which will be announced on Sunday afternoon. View the Shortlist. The Concept & Innovation Awards winner will be announced on Monday afternoon – view details of finalists HERE. Also, whilst visiting the Association's Stand B31 – be sure to pick up a copy of the newly launched 2022/2023 Handbook – which is free and a must have, definitive guide for anyone sourcing new products in the industry.

Finally, don't miss the FREE drinks party with live music in the Royal Hall on Sunday from 5.30pm to 8.30pm (free bar closes at 7.30pm).

The Nursery Fair team looks forward to welcoming you all to the show!
