

Open for business

The doors open today (Sunday 24th) on the event the industry has been waiting for – Harrogate International Nursery Fair 2019.

Three halls of the Harrogate Convention Centre are packed with a host of exciting new products – with many well-known brands exhibiting and new suppliers attending for the first time. Don't miss the New Products Showcase in Hall Q presenting some fantastic product launches – and at 4pm the Baby Products Association will be announcing the winners of the 2019 BANTA awards in the Seminar Theatre.

The show is open from 9.30am to 5.30pm on Sunday and Monday and 9.30am to 4.00pm on Tuesday – we look forward to seeing you at the show!

Disney 'Pooh Cuddles'

'Pooh Cuddles' is a new Disney design from Hauck featuring a small range of indoor and outdoor items. The Sit'n Fold is a light, compact high chair with an adjustable backrest and generous seat. For those all-important baby essentials or toys there is a large storage basket. Use as a freestanding high chair with tray, or remove the tray completely and place next to you at the table, this practical tray has a cup moulding as well as an elevated border so everything remains in place. After mealtimes, the Sit'n Fold folds down flat to half its original size for easy storage.

Boogie baby

Shake, rattle and roll with this perfect Halilit musical set for babies. It has everything needed to excite little one's senses with this colourful set of jingling, rattling musical toys – with each one being a real, accurately tuned musical instrument. Each is carefully designed for little hands to hold and shake. This set is great for an early introduction to music and sound and opens up a little one's world to developing so many skills: cause and effect, hand eye coordination and much more. Features a colourful maraca, textured rattle, super egg shaker, jingly cage bell and rain-like tube shaker.
