Bath-time bonding

Little Chick London's gorgeous Bath Swaddle Robe for new-borns is a cross between a swaddle, a towel and a dressing gown. This unique design allows important skin-to-skin contact with the parent – which stabilises the baby's heart rate and body temperature; baby is 12 times less likely to cry, and in turn reduces anxiety in parents.

The New Born Bath Swaddle Robe is made from super soft bamboo towelling and is gentle on a baby's skin but quick drying for warmth. The soft hooded towel has swaddle wings to wrap baby and a tie belt to help snuggle them dry.

The unique design keeps baby's head, back and feet covered, but allows important skin to skin contact with the parent's torso – creating the ultimate bonding experience which is so important in the early days and weeks of life.
