

New to see

Excitingly, Harrogate International Nursery Fair welcomes 44 exhibitors that are either new to the show or returning after a significant break this year. This means that even if you've attended the show for the last few years, you are guaranteed to see products and ranges that you haven't had the chance to view first-hand before.

Don't miss our newsletters this week (today, Thursday and Saturday) with a taster of some of the great products that will be at the show. All the information you need about visiting are on the website at www.nurseryfair.com

Sleep in luxury

Rosa & Blue is a sustainable B Corp® certified baby and children's brand, creating luxurious sleepwear and accessories, from a signature blend of bamboo and organic cotton. Designed in the UK and carefully crafted in Portugal, the entire collection is beautifully soft, breathable, thermo-regulating and hypoallergenic too, the perfect choice for delicate newborn and sensitive skin. Each gorgeous print is hand-drawn and painted in watercolour by founder Pollyanna's talented husband, ensuring classic designs that are exclusive in every way. The entire range is OEKO-TEX Standard 100, Class 1 (baby) certified.

Inglesina new distributor

With a rich heritage going back over 60 years, and a well-established reputation for dedication to baby's comfort and wellbeing, all aspects of Inglesina's strollers, car seats and accessories are carefully designed with little ones and parents in mind. Inglesina travel systems feature the innovative large carrycot. Roomy and well ventilated to create the perfect environment for babies during those precious first few months, its generous internal dimensions mean baby can lie down comfortably until at least six months old. The carrycot comes with the signature Welcome Pad® designed in collaboration with a team of neonatal paediatricians. The Inglesina team will be joining its new UK distributor, CuddleCo and can't wait to show you the latest collection.

Cheeky choice

Matchstick Monkey's award-winning teethers, toys and gift sets are the go-to choice for new parents. Renowned for its teething, Matchstick Monkey and his animal friends are fun, flexible and the perfect size for tiny hands. It trains fine motor skills and your little ones can chew to their heart's content whilst massaging sore gums.
