Still time to join Mamas & Papas and numerous major brands at the UK's only baby trade show

With the opening of a fifth hall for Harrogate International Nursery Fair in October; and the exciting return of several major brands including Mamas & Papas; there is still exhibition space available for companies wishing to participate and take advantage of new business opportunities offered by the show.

This year already has an abundance of new and returning brands confirmed, including - iCandy, Britax,, Cybex, Jané, Junior Jones, Out n About, Ergobaby & Tula Baby; and numerous show faithfuls such as BabyStyle, Mee-go, Obaby, and Roma – to name just a few.

Adrian Sneyd, show organiser, explains: “There is a real buzz of excitement about Harrogate as the industry looks forward to its first trade event in two years. We opened an additional hall to cater for demand – and recently announced a free after-show party on Sunday 17th October thanks to a collaboration of sponsors to be announced shortly.

“A large number of exhibitors for 2021 are brand new to the show, or returning after a break, so visitors will be excited to see some fresh and innovative ranges. It would be fantastic to have further brands on board to offer a completely full house this year.”
